LIBRARY PLANS DINNER MEET, DEDICATION

Plans were advanced by directors of the Adams County Public Library Friday evening for two "red letter days" approaching on the library's calendar.

Special committees will complete plans for the annual meeting of the library to be held Thursday evening, January 16, at the Hotel Gettysburg and the dedication of the new library annex during National Library Week in mid-April.

Board members heard from architects' representatives that new construction on the children's reading room and additional stack space is 70 to 75 per cent complete. The construction contract should be completed by mid-March, it was announced.

PROF. REINBERGER SPEAKS

President H. Thomas Pyle said he will appoint a committee within a few days to arrange for a dedicatory program.

Prof. Francis Reinberger, member of the Lutheran Theological Seminary faculty and a former member of the library board, will be the speaker for the annual dinner meeting at the hotel. The price will be $3, it was announced by C. P. Keefe, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Annual reports will be presented there and board positions will be filled. Board officers will be elected at the next meeting of the directors, scheduled for February 6.

$72,500 IN PLEDGES

Equipment such as shelving, tables, chairs and catalogs for new sections of the library building is expected to be ordered at the February meeting of the board. Bids are to be secured by that time on equipment that may cost up to $15,000. Methods of financing the equipment also are to be proposed at that time.

Mr. Keefe, who has been serving as head of the continuing capital funds drive, reported (Continued On Page 3)

PAUL PITZER PRESIDENT OF FARM GROUP

Paul G. Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1, fruitgrower and livestock farmer, was elected president of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association at the annual all-day meeting of the organization's executive committee Friday at the Varsity Diner. He succeeds Joseph A. Stoner, East Berlin R. 2.

Francis Weikert, Gettysburg R. 3, was named vice president; Myles Starnes, Aspers R. D., a former president of the group, was named as secretary and Stuart Lucabaugh, Hanover R. D., was named treasurer.

Outgoing President Stoner presided at the meeting and gave the invocation. Reports were presented by the outgoing secretary, Mrs. Paul Redcay, and outgoing treasurer, John Schwartz.

TWO 4-H FUNDS

Associate County Agent Duane Duncan reported that two 4-H funds are scheduled to be set up this year. One will be a continuation of the regular 4-H Club Fund, and a drive for $1,000 for that fund will be made in March. Sale of cookies by the 4-H members, another year to year activity to raise funds, will be held January 25 to February 8.

In addition a special 4-H Development Fund will be set up for amounts now provided by the state for special new activities of 4-H work. None of the state money, he said, can be used for 4-H activities which have been carried out previously, and as a result the fund campaigns normally carried on will have to be continued for the activities already started.

After a discussion on the present constitution of the county Extension Association and a discussion of the possibility of changing the method of elections and adding more women to the executive committee, it was decided to set up a committee in the near future to study the entire constitution.

PLAN NEW CLUBS

Mrs. Helen Tunison, extension home economist, reported 125 members in the Senior Citizens' Club here and said this as a result of interest shown for similar clubs in other communities of the county will seek to establish such clubs this year.

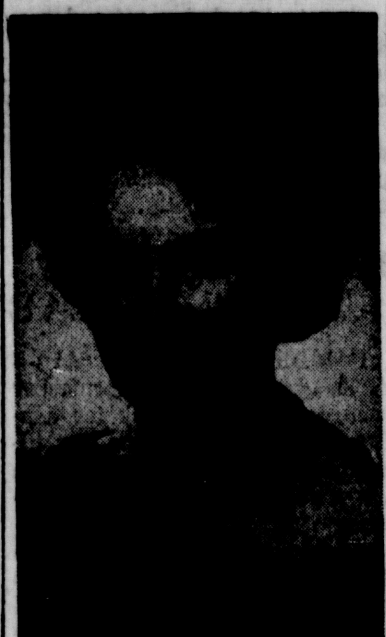

All three of the new county commissioners attended the morning session.

WILL RETIRE MONDAY AFTER LONG SERVICE

Miss Edna E. Eicholtz, 312 N. Stratton St., will retire Monday after 46 years of service to the county as an employee in the courthouse.

She began her duties in 1917, accepting a part-time clerk's position with then Register and Recorder Charles W. Gardner. In 1918 she began full-time duties and continued in the register and recorder's office until 1940 when she moved to the prothonotary's office under Lee M. Hartman.

Mr. Hartman was called into service during his term and Miss Eicholtz finished out the term as deputy prothonotary. She continued as deputy under the late Arthur "Otto" Shields. When he died suddenly during his second term, she was acting prothonotary until his son, Wayne, was appointed and then continued as deputy prothonotary during Mr.

MISS EICHOLTZ

Shields' term and the term of Herbert W. Miller.

ENJOYED WORK

Miss Eicholtz says of her nearly a half century at the courthouse that she "enjoyed every minute of it." And her association with the public "was very pleasant." There were hundreds for whom she secured passports that they might visit other countries. About 60 persons became citizens of the United States during her years in service and she had much work to do with each naturalization.

She enjoyed, too, the visits by school children to the courthouse and prothonotary's office where she gave details of the office work.

She took a leave of absence some weeks ago when her sister, Miss Winnie Eicholtz, became ill and was admitted as a patient at the hospital.

AUTO CRASHES IN '63 KILLED 20, HURT 324

There were more auto accidents on Adams County highways in 1963 than in any prior year, according to the annual report of the activities of the local substation of the Pennsylvania state police, completed today by Sgt. David K. James.

The normal increase in traffic year by year—the county had its largest tourist visitation in history during 1963 as one indication—probably accounted for the increased number of accidents.

But the toll was frightening. Twenty people lost their lives in the 449 accidents and 324 persons suffered injuries ranging from cuts and bruises to some who lost limbs and some who will suffer from the injuries for the remainder of their lives.

DAMAGE $304,397

The damage total was $304,397, and that does not include the financial loss caused by loss of work due to injury and hospital and physicians bills that probably exceeded the amount of damage to the motor vehicles.

Nor do the state police figures include the number of accidents that were investigated by borough and township police throughout the county and the large number of accidents to which police were not summoned.

In attempting to hold down the number of accidents state police made 1,900 arrests during the last 12 months.

The toll in 1963 compared to 13 killed, 251 injured and damage totaling $305,547 in 1962.

Gettysburg Raises Tuition To $1,500

Gettysburg College has announced an increase in tuition for the 1965-66 term. The increase was deemed necessary by the board of trustees "to meet the sharply increased costs of operation."

The comprehensive fee which covers all academic expenses, except books, will be increased from $1,300 to $1,500. Board will go up from $448 to $480 per year and $30 will be added to yearly room rents.

These new fees will become effective with the opening of the academic year in September.

Junior Class At GHS Tops Pledges

The Junior class at Gettysburg Senior High School has over-subscribed its pledge of "goodwill shares" for the student exchange program, according to an announcement today by the American Field Service committee here. The Seventh Grade had previously been listed as having exceeded its goal.

The Junior class pledged $707.25 but paid a total of $716.85 after an "all out effort" led by J. M. Sheads, American history teacher at the school.

BOARD TO MEET

Biglerville Firemen Had Dozen '63 Calls

Biglerville firemen were summoned to 12 fires during 1963, Chief Robert Baker reported Thursday evening at the meeting of the firemen at their engine house. Damage to structures was estimated by the chief at $8,000 and to contents at $1,010.

Preliminary plans were announced for the annual carnival to be held July 14 through 18. Robert Baker was named chairman of a chicken supper to be held either April 4 or 11. Roy Kuykendall was elected janitor.

President Mervin Weikert presided at the meeting, with the next session to be held February 6 at 7:30 at the engine house.

BOY SCOUTS SET $7,500 AS DRIVE'S GOAL

The finance committee of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, meeting Friday at the Hotel Gettysburg, set $7,500 as the goal in the current campaign for funds.

Of that amount $6,500 will be sought throughout the county area covered by the district. Finance Campaign Chairman Charles Kingston said he is currently naming the chairman for the various communities. About 250 solicitors will be chosen to conduct a door to door drive in the various boroughs and communities during Boy Scout Week in February to seek donations toward scouting.

The other $1,000 will be sought in a special campaign in Gettysburg. Authorized by United Fund, the $1,000 campaign will be designed to raise the amount that United Fund could not supply the Scouts this year because it fell short of its goal during the October drive. In Gettysburg, rather than conduct a house to house campaign as in the other communities, the Scout finance committee decided to conduct a "sustaining membership" drive. A sustaining membership is a donation of $5 or more, and the committee hopes to find 200 or less residents of the town who between them will provide the $1,000.

District Finance Chairman Attorney Daniel E. Tetter presided at the meeting. Dr. W. E. Tilberg, special gifts chairman, said his committee will begin its solicitation Monday and hopes to wind up its portion of the drive prior to the "kickoff" of the general campaign on February 6. That evening a dinner for the general solicitors will be donated by the C. H. Musselman Co. and they will be given their supplies at that session in Biglerville.

Charles Ritter, general chairman for Littlestown, reported on preliminary plans for the fund drive activities there. Joining with the other members of the committee were York-Adams Scout Executive Ray Weigand and District Executive Stanley C. Rogers.

The Church School will meet at 9 a.m.

Trinity Church, Cashtown, will observe the sacrament at 9:30 a.m. During this service, Harry Trawitz, Harrisburg, will serve as guest organist. The pastor will be assisted in the administration of the elements by the president of the consistory. The Church School will meet at 10:35 a.m.

The worship service at St. John's, Fairfield, will be presided by Church School at 10 o'clock. The Communion service will begin at 11 a.m. during which a special offering will be received for the building fund. Mrs. Clyde Myers will serve as organist and the president of the consistory will assist in the distribution of the elements. A nursery for preschool children will be held at the parsonage during the service.

FIREMEN TO MEET

The quarterly meeting of the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Arendtsville fire house, President Robert Heyser has announced.

MANY COURT HOUSE POSTS CHANGE HANDS NEXT MONDAY

Monday will be a big day as far as county, township and borough governments are concerned.

Monday morning the county will swear in the first entirely new board of commissioners in many years, and the first with a Democratic majority in 28 years.

One of the first duties of the new board will be to build up a staff to serve it in the commissioners, assessors' and other offices. Natural attrition in the form of resignations and deaths has about wiped out the staffs that had served for some time. None of the three commissioners who start their duties Monday, Atlee Rebert, Harrison Fair or G. Ed Motter, has previously held county office.

PERSONNEL CHANGES

A new prothonotary and staff will take over in that office: Prothonotary George Weaver, Deputy Wayne Shields and Clerk Mrs. Jean Keller. All three have been in the prothonotary's office for the last week going over details of the work. Shields is a former prothonotary, so will be invaluable in the office. But his switch to that office makes another opening in the mapping department where he was formerly employed.

A new district attorney, Gerald R. Walmer, will take over those duties Monday—starting off with a session of court. He is the first Republican to hold the office in 40 years.

The same register and recorder of the last two terms will start a new term of four years, Carl S. Menchey. The change will mark the first time he has been salaried as a register and recorder. Instead of being paid on a fee basis, he will receive $7,600 a year for his duties, which means a reduction in salary.

SCARDS TO REORGANIZE

Other officials who will be starting new terms Monday will include the coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist; Associate Judge Clarence Deardorff and the county's auditors: Mrs. Ruth A. Frey, Mrs. Eleanor M. Linebaugh and Armon Weikert.

Reorganization of the boards of commissioners and auditors are among the items also on the agenda for Monday morning. The reorganizations taking place Monday during the day at the courthouse will be duplicated Monday evening throughout the county. (Continued On Page 3)

COURT ORDERS TO SUPPORT SON ABROAD

Judge G. Thomas Miller, formerly of Gettysburg, in Dauphin County Court Friday for the first time in the court history, ordered a Hanover R. 2 man to pay support for a child now living in a foreign country where he was taken by his mother.

The apparently precedent-making decision, written by Judge Miller, was handed down with Judge R. Dixon Herman dissenting. Those supporting Miller's opinion were President Judge Walter R. Sohn, and Judges Carl B. Shelley and Homer L. Kreider.

The order directed William H. Weaver, formerly of Harrisburg but now of Hanover R. 2, to continue paying $15 per week to his former wife, Mrs. Joyce E. Weaver, now of Melbourne, Australia, for the support of their son, Jeffrey Weaver, 14, also of Melbourne.

ORDER NOV. 5, 1962

The original support order in the unusual case was made Nov. 5, 1962, after the parents had separated and shortly before they were divorced. At the time, both mother and son were living in Harrisburg.

The opinion noted that Weaver had continued to make support payments until last April when he learned that his former wife had moved to Australia with Jeffrey and had remarried.

Weaver told the court that he had met and married his former wife in England while a member of the armed forces and that she had never relinquished her British citizenship.

In making its latest decision, the court turned down the petition of the father who had sought to end support payments on the grounds that (1) with the boy living in a foreign country the court here no longer had jurisdiction in

MAY INCREASE OVERTIME PAY TO CURB IDLE

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson's demand for new thinking in devising solutions to the nagging unemployment problem has produced a hint of possible action that could affect virtually every American worker.

After conferring with Johnson at the LBJ Ranch, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz suggested to newsmen it might be wise to study the present time-and-a-half pay rate for overtime work.

If the rate were raised, Wirtz said, employers might be encouraged to eliminate overtime chores and hire additional workers.

He said elimination of overtime would open up the equivalent of 919,000 full-time jobs.

Wirtz' suggestion came three days after a Johnson aide had told newsmen the President wanted new thinking on possible ways to cope with persistent unemployment troubles.

Johnson indicated Friday he is trying hard to keep his new budget, for the 1965 fiscal year that begins July 1, below $100 billion. He even said it might wind up one or two percentage points below that level.

A cut of two per cent from $100 billion would yield a spending blue-print of $98 billion, or less than the record-breaking budget of $98.8 billion submitted to Congress a year ago by the late President John F. Kennedy.

However, it seemed unlikely that Johnson could avoid a budget bigger than ever.

The President, holding an impromptu news conference on the front porch of his ranch home, said the budget "will hover above or below $100 billion; it might be off a small percentage."

GENERAL FUND UP $864,000

HARRISBURG (AP)—With the 1963-64 fiscal year half over, the Scranton administration is boasting that general fund revenues are $864,000 higher than anticipated.

In its monthly report issued Friday, the office of administration said revenues during the first six months totaled $396,769,000.

Tax collections for December amounted to $74,467,000, completely erasing a deficiency from a business standstill in November attributed to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Administration aides said the revenue receipts for the first six months exceeded those of a similar period in 1962-63 by more than $65 million.

The new five per cent sales tax yielded $212.5 million in the six-month period, $1.5 million more than expected. Sales tax accounted for 53 per cent of the total revenue.

Taxes which lagged behind estimates were on liquor $684,000; cigarettes $759,000; inheritances $1,577,000; and capital stock and franchise $869,000.

The program will include a wide range of musical compositions of classic, romantic and contemporary periods by such contemporary composers as Samuel Barber, Darius Milhaud, Virgil Thomson, Francis Poulenc, Paul Bowles, Georges Auric, Vittorio Rieti.

Last season Gold and Fisdale were accorded the honor of being the first artists invited to give a recital in the new Philharmonic Auditorium at New York's Lincoln Center during the opening week celebration. # Road Fatalities Increase In State

HARRISBURG (AP)—Traffic fatalities increased 11 per cent in Pennsylvania during 1963, while vehicle registrations rose only four per cent, according to unofficial figures released by the Traffic Safety Bureau.

A bureau spokesman said Friday the state recorded 1,807 auto deaths last year, compared with 1,625 in 1962.

The spokesman noted, however, that in addition to the increase in registrations, the total mileage traveled during the year was up an estimated one billion miles.

Official figures are expected to be ready by Jan. 15.

CHARGERS ARE FAVORITES IN AFL TITLE TILT

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The four-season-old American Football League settles its 1963 championship Sunday with the slightly favored San Diego Chargers meeting the Boston Patriots, longest finalist in major pro grid history.

The Western Division champion Chargers, finishing with an 11-3 record, are pegged a 6½-point choice in the title showdown before an expected 30,000 in Balboa Stadium.

The game will be televised and broadcast nationally by the American Broadcasting Company, beginning at 4:30 p.m. EST.

Although Boston is making its first championship try, San Diego will be striving to win a title game for the third time in the AFL's brief existence.

Defensive-minded Boston clawed its way to the Eastern crown after losing all five pre-season games by whipping Buffalo in a regional playoff after each finished with a feeble 7-6-1 record.

Sunday's attendance will fall well below last year's record crowd of 37,891 at Houston as Dallas nipped the Oilers 20-17 for the title. Not only is the Balboa Stadium capacity limited to 34,500 but San Diego football fans will be able to get TV reception of the game from Los Angeles.

Because of the annual stepup in title game proceeds from the AFL's five-season TV package, each player's share will top the $2,206 per winner and $1,471 per loser last year. This time, each winning player may pocket about $2,500 and each losing player about $1,700.

It is quite a tribute to the Patriots, who arrived in this sunny city Wednesday after three weeks of practice wearing sneakers on frozen turf, that they are only a one-touchdown underdog.

Boston already has lost three times to the Chargers. San Diego walloped Boston 50-17 in a pre-season clash and then whipped Mike Holovak's Patriots twice in regular season play, 17-13 and 7-6.

However, since losing the 7-6 game in Boston Nov. 10, the Patriots have been bolstered by return of fleet halfback Ron Burton and the late season blooming of quarterback Babe Parilli.

REOPEN FILES IN HUNTER CASE

QUEBEC (AP)—Premier Jean Lesage says the Quebec Provincial Government is looking again into the case of Wilbert Coffin, hanged for the murder of three Hollidaysburg, Pa., hunters in 1953.

Lesage said Friday the cabinet has only begun study of the government's files on the case.

Killed in the Gaspé wilderness were Eugene Linsey, 47; his son, Richard, 17, and Frederick Clair, 20. Coffin, a 43-year-old Gaspé, prospector, died on the gallows in Montreal Feb. 9, 1956.

The case was pushed into public view last month with the publication of a book called "J'Accuse Les Assassins De Coffin." The book says Coffin was innocent.

Its publication was followed by a series of demands for a royal commission to investigate. Lucien Descent, assistant director of the Provincial Police, was sent to Toronto and Vancouver to interview persons connected with the case. Descent has declined comment.

Tate made the comments Friday after conferring with Green.

Green, 25, a senior at Villanova University's Law School, is reportedly interested in running for the seat held by his father, the first Democratic Party leader in Philadelphia.

Thousands Pour Through Berlin Wall In Closing Hours To See Relatives

By JOHN O. KOEHLER
BERLIN (AP) — A huge human tide poured through the Berlin wall today as the Communist concession of holiday visits to the East sector neared its end.

By noon over 100,000 people had surged through the Communist control points, the official East German news agency ADN reported.

While the Berliners made the most of their last 48 hours of visiting, politicians of East and West jockeyed for political position.

Both sides have called for negotiations to allow West Berliners to visit the Soviet sector of the divided city after the present holiday crossings of the wall end at midnight Sunday.

SEEK NEW PACT

The United States, Britain and France authorized West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt to negotiate a new agreement within carefully defined limits.

In East Germany, Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht, seeking full Western recognition for his regime, called for far-reaching East-West agreements to settle all problems of divided Germany.

Communist authorities prepared to handle the biggest single-day flow of West Berliners through the wall since the visits began Dec. 19.

Teams of workmen, watched by armed border guards, further enlarged the five crossing points in the wall after authorities predicted that a record 230,000 West Berliners would visit relatives in the eastern sector today.

There was little doubt that the wall would close again Sunday, as scheduled under the current agreement. There was no indication when new talks would begin to reopen the wall to West Berliners, who saw their relatives during the holidays for the first time since the barrier went up 28 months ago.

passion and resurrection of Our Lord," he said.

He also emphasized his hopes that his trip would advance the cause of world peace, saying: "In these days, when the sacred liturgy recalls the Prince of Peace, we will beg of him to give to the world this precious gift and to consolidate it always more firmly among men, in families and among peoples."

INTO JERUSALEM

From the Amman Airport, the route of the papal motorcade lay through the ancient Biblical countryside to Jerusalem, 54 miles away. Jordanian troops and police lined the route in a massive display of security arrangements.

At the Emir Abdullah bridge over the Jordan River, Jerusalem's governor and other dignitaries awaited the pontiff. From the bridge could be seen the steeple of the Church of the Ascension atop the Mount of Olives, where Jesus is believed to have risen to heaven, and the Dead Sea, the lowest spot on earth, in the distance to the south.

The remaining 14 miles took the Pope's modern caravan from below sea level gradually upward through the Judean hills to the holy city itself, 3,000 feet above sea level.

USE PAPAL COLORS

Buildings in the Old City of Jerusalem, holy to three great world religions, were draped with papal colors of yellow and white and the Jordanian national colors of black, white, red and green.

Arab Legion soldiers stood alertly on guard atop the ancient crenelated walls from which they could look down on either side of the divided city.

The Pope's route through Jerusalem took him on foot along the Way of the Cross, the path Christ followed on his way to Calvary and the crucifixion, to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher.

In Israel, which Pope Paul will visit Sunday, Prime Minister Levi Eshkol welcomed the arrival of the pontiff with the ancient Hebrew greeting, "Blessed is your coming in peace."

TO VISIT NAZARETH

"In welcoming the Pope to the gates of our land," Eshkol said in a statement, "we are conscious of his particular interest in, and incessant efforts for, peace in the world."

"May the pontiff's visit contribute to the strengthening of the aspiration for peace in our region and in the entire world."

In Israel the Pope will visit Nazareth, the Church of the Annunciation, the Sea of Galilee, Mount Tabor, the Church of the Beatitudes, at the site of the Sermon on the Mount, and the hall of the Last Supper.

In the evening he will cross back into the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem at his meeting with Patriarch Athenagoras I of Constantinople, the spiritual leader of the Orthodox churches.

ing sessions of the all-day meeting.

Miss Ann Lott, Aspers R. 1, who recently returned after serving as an International Farm Youth Exchange Student in Scotland, spoke of her experiences there following the luncheon at noon.

Duane Duncan then outlined plans to establish new home economics 4-H clubs in New Oxford and the Bermudian Springs areas and a second club in Fairfield. Plans also call for attempts to form new agricultural 4-H clubs at Fairfield and Aspers, tractor clubs at Biglerville and Gettysburg and an electric club at Littlestown.

TO EXPAND PROGRAM

Expansion was planned for home economics work among older girls in the "Teens in the Homes," "Dress Revue" and "When You Step Out" programs — with more emphasis on advanced work in sewing. In agriculture, stress will be placed on electric clubs, soil and water conservation, third-year tractor programs and reactivation of the Town and Country Business Club program.

Associate County Agent Joseph Lutz and Assistant Extension Home Economist Joann Ketterer outlined programs for young adults, both for single youths aged 17 to 25 and young married couples up to age 35. The executive committee directed that work should be started to form a group of young married couples.

Paul Pitzer reported on continuing studies on community development being made by a number of committees set up by extension. Planning for future development of the county was stressed and the executive committee directed that the new county commissioners be given access to what has already been done.

Branches accounted for 179 other loans. The two bookmobiles traveled 776 miles last month.

Hearing Delays New Oil Pipeline

HARRISBURG (AP) — Hearings on construction of a new petroleum pipeline in Chester County has been indefinitely by the Public Utility Commission.

The hearings originally were scheduled for next Monday in West Chester.

A commission spokesman said Friday, the delay was caused by the illness of attorney Jack Vickery, vice president and general counsel for the Colonial Pipeline Co. of Philadelphia.

The hearings were ordered to take up the complaints of Frederick A. Lang and Edward W. James who contend the proposed pipeline would be unsafe. Lang represents the Southeastern Pennsylvania Land Owners' Association.

Joseph Sharfstein, PUC chairman, said the hearings would be rescheduled on the earliest possible date perhaps by Jan. 13 or 20.

Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — It's still not clear whether American taxpayers will help pay the ocean freight on 37 million bushels of U.S. wheat sold to the Soviet Union.

The sale is for cash, about $78.5 million. But it is not a simple cash sale.

The deal involves about $26 million in government subsidies — money which Uncle Sam originally got from those who pay taxes. What's not clear at the moment is whether the $26 million includes any of the cost of moving the grain from American to Soviet shores.

The sale was disclosed Friday by both the Agriculture Department and the Continental Grain Co., the big New York grain company that engineered the deal with the government's blessing.

WORTH $90 MILLION

The wheat sold the Russians will have a value of about $90 million at U.S. ports. The Soviet Union will pay approximately $68.5 million for the grain delivered at their ports.

COUNCIL TO ELECT

Gettysburg borough council will reorganize with six "new" councilmen. Three are men returned to office: George W. Naugle, Richard S. Smith and Robert McCoy. Three will be "brand new": James W. Strickhouse from the First Ward; Kenneth P. Hull from the Second, and William A. Lentz from the Third. With Council President J. Glenn Guise among those who have left the borough council, retiring after eight years, a new council president will be named. Councilman Philip M. Jores is being considered for that post.

A similar situation obtains at New Oxford where council president H. S. Griffin also did not seek re-election.

All other borough councils throughout the county are scheduled to reorganize. In addition, the 21 townships, boards of auditors are scheduled to meet that day to organize, as are boards of supervisors.

It will be a busy day throughout the county for many.

Will Open Lodge Office In York

BOSTON (AP) — Sponsors for a chain of Draft Lodge for President headquarters say they will open an office in York, Pa., next week in their drive for signatures on petitions asking Henry Cabot Lodge to seek the Republican presidential nomination.

The announcement was made by Robert R. Mullen, national coordinator of the signature drive, after the first office was opened here Friday.

However, Secretary of State Kevin H. White said he wanted to study the papers filed by the committee as required by state law before approving them. The law requires assent of a candidate to formation of any political committee working in his behalf.

sible date perhaps by Jan. 13 or 20.

partment has been offering export subsidies on wheat because U.S. prices have been held above comparative world levels by grower price-support programs. Exporters have been able to make sales abroad only when the subsidies were sufficient to make up the difference between the higher U.S. prices and the lower world prices.

But the size of the subsidy approved for the Continental sale appeared to be larger than necessary to make up the difference between the domestic and world prices. The subsidy goes to the seller, not the buyer.

USE U. S. SHIPS?

When the late President John F. Kennedy directed last fall that Soviet-bloc wheat be made eligible for export subsidies, he specified that half the grain sold such areas be moved in U.S.-flag ships to the extent available.

The Russians balked at use of American boats because their freight rates are higher than those of foreign vessels. For a time it appeared that Soviet sales might not develop because of the freight question.

The possibility that the Continental deal may carry indirect freight subsidies to meet Soviet opposition to the higher rates of U.S. ships was seen in the export subsidies the department will pay on nearly 13 million bushels of durum-class wheat involved in the Soviet sale.

PAY SUBSIDY

The department agreed to pay a subsidy averaging 72.5 cents a bushel on the durum. This was upwards of 15 cents more than the agency had paid on other recent subsidized sales of this type wheat. Durum is used for making macaroni, spaghetti and similar products.

This extra amount in the durum subsidy was equivalent to about $1,750,000 based on the difference between recent subsidy payments and that approved for Continental.

The subsidy rates on the remaining part of the 37 million bushels range from 51 to 65 cents a bushel, depending on class of wheat and ports from which it will be shipped. The other types are used mainly for flour for bread and other baking purposes.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO

Local Couple Is Engaged: Dr. and Mrs. Frank N. Britcher, 40 E. Stevens St., announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Caroline, to Howard S. Fox Jr., son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Howard S. Fox, 141 S. Stratton St., at a Christmas Eve open house party at the Britcher residence.

Miss Britcher, who was graduated from the Gettysburg High School in 1952, is employed by the Singer Sewing Machine Company, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Fox was graduated from the Gettysburg High School in 1947 and attended Gettysburg College. He was graduated from the Elias Electrical School in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Fox who was a member of the Second Army Band, was discharged from the U.S. Army at Fort Meade this year. He is employed by the Metropolitan Edison Company, Gettysburg.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Greeting Arrives After Long Journey: It took from November 30 to December 24 for a Christmas greeting to travel from Freeport, Ill., to Orrtanna, R.D. but it wasn't the post office's fault.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hagerman, of Freeport, R. 4, who spent part of the summer with Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Nail, New Oxford, R. 2, decided to send a Christmas greeting to Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, Orrtanna, R.D.

They mailed it November 30, but erroneously wrote Orrtanna, instead of Orrtanna, in the address.

The letter visited a number of post offices in the Pittsburgh area while postmen tried to figure out what town was meant. Then it was sent back to Freeport. The Gagermans then sent it to Mr. Nail, who delivered the greeting personally on Thursday.

E. Philip Tyson To Be Gardner Postmaster: E. Philip Tyson, Idaville, has been named as acting postmaster in Gardner to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Grover C. Myers, who served in that post since 1959.

Mr. Myers, a former fruit grower and operator of a warehouse in Gardner, plans to leave for Florida for three months after his retirement as Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Tyson will be installed as acting postmaster by Postal Inspector T. C. Moo at 3 o'clock named to the position at the man S. Walter Stauffer. Gardner is a third class post office. Mr. Tyson's salary will be $3,900 per year.

A graduate of Biglerville High School and the General Motors School of Technology at Detroit, the new postmaster is a son of the late Chester Tyson. For the last year he has operated a Raleigh products route.

An amateur photographer, Mr. Tyson has needed the photography division of the South Mountain Fair since its establishment several years ago and is president of the Gettysburg Photography Society.

College Will Raise Millions For Buildings: An architect's drawing and a ground plan for the men's dormitories to be constructed next year at Gettysburg College are shown in some drawings.

There will be three dormitories, each designed to house approximately 140 students. The three structures will be located on the college campus in the area between Breidenbaugh Science hall and the Eddie Plank Memorial Gymnasium.

The college plans in the near future to start a campaign to raise $1,000,000. Of that amount a portion will go toward paying

Today's Talk

LIFE, THE SCULPTOR

I recall spending several hours viewing a group of carved marble figures, expressing a variety of inward visions that come to the artists as they strive with tools to bring those visions into visible form.

Deeply did I feel the struggles and emotions that must have possessed those lovers of expression as they wrought to produce something that might live beyond their day of dreams. In that gallery I viewed examples that had been unearthed after centuries of stillness and neglect. And yet there was the beauty and the dream revealed.

Then I went into the moving world, with my friend, and there I saw the greatest sculptor of them all at work — Life. I saw deep lines that this artist had cut into living faces. I saw bent figures, and sad eyes. I saw trouble, anxiety, and despair. But also, I saw beauty of expression, joy, will power, and happiness, each cut unmistakably into faces that had breathed defeat and challenged adversity.

Life, the sculptor, is ever at work. Day and night, his task goes on — never satisfied with what he does. Never are his workings wholly complete, though many stand out as amazing masterpieces of long toil and silent effort.

Through every phase of the season does he labor. Not a single life escapes him. He works upon us all. We are his work. Men and women have sought to duplicate the work of this one perfect sculptor, through the medium of marble, plaster and bronze. Never but faintly have they ever succeeded, however.

In the fields, under the heat of the sun does he work, in shops, factories, offices, upon the busy streets, in quiet nooks away from crowds, in hospitals where bodies are in pain, on the battlefield, in desert wastes — wherever human beings breathe, he works away.

Life, the sculptor, is the perfect artist. Never has he left a false piece of work behind. Our thoughts guide his hand!

Just Folks

A SHATTERED RESOLUTION I resolved to be patient and calm.

Of trifles no more, I'd complain, I would go through the year without causing a tear, But my noble intentions were vain.

"No matter what happens," I said, "I will not lose my temper or scold."

But that vow I forgot, for I like coffee hot, And my coffee this morning was cold!

I wish to be gentle and kind, I've tried to be year after year; Many vows I have made, not to start a tirade, But quickly such vows disappear.

Now another lies broken and dead, Another that's scarce a week old; But what man can gain when he has to begin His breakfast with coffee that's cold?

Oh, women folks, help me, I pray, I am doing the best that I can; Yearly, vows I repeat to be kindly and sweet And not such a grouch of a man.

But you're making my struggle so hard, A truth which you ought to be told, For my temper gets hot when my coffee is not, And my coffee this morning was cold!

TROOPERS TO BAR FEDS FROM AUBURN UNIV.

By DON MCKEE
AUBURN, Ala. (AP)—A hundred state troopers took up positions today around Auburn University under strict orders to bar federal agents from the campus when the school's first Negro student registers.

"If any federal agent tries to force his way past you, use force if necessary to stop him," Col. Albert Lingo, state public safety director, told his helmeted troopers Friday.

A Justice Department spokesman in Washington said there were no plans for any federal officers to enter the campus or escort the Negro, Harold A. Franklin, who will be admitted under a federal court order.

The spokesman said some federal agents were in Auburn as observers only.

NO SHOWDOWN

Lingo said that Franklin would be allowed to register after university officials announced they would comply with court orders.

While Lingo's action raised the possibility of a new federal-state confrontation, the federal reaction apparently erased the threat of a showdown similar to Gov. George C. Wallace's use of troopers last fall to temporarily block Negroes from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa and some public schools.

Lingo said some federal officers had obtained university press cards. But he said newsmen would not be allowed on the campus without additional credentials. Cameras were banned from the campus.

Tight security was imposed on the university to keep unauthorized persons from the cam-

BEAVER FALLS BLAZES RUIN 3 BUILDINGS

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—A fire official said today a gas explosion apparently was the cause of a fire that destroyed three buildings and damaged others in downtown Beaver Falls.

Fire Chief Ed Phillips said he believes a blast let loose in a furnace under repair in the basement of a building housing a women's shop.

Mayor Evelyn F. Javens and Police Chief Martin Breit said the fire Friday caused damage estimated at $500,000.

Thick smoke spread over a large part of the city and sickened several firemen. Nine firemen were treated for smoke inhalation at Providence Hospital.

One fireman, Phillip Plowmaker, 24, of Beaver Falls, was admitted and was listed in good condition.

CALL 9 COMPANIES

At least nine fire companies battled the flames for some five hours before bringing it under control about 6 p.m.

The Red Cross gave oxygen to an undetermined number of firemen and treated several of them for cuts.

According to authorities, the flames broke out in the basement of the Jean Froch Woman's Store, spread through the shop and into the adjoining Dell Millinery Shop in the same building.

Flames spread to an adjoining building that housed a vacant store room on the ground floor and Mildred's Beauty Shop on the upper floor.

The fire then spread to a third building that had a Woolworth's Dime Store on the first floor and a Household Finance Corp. office on the second floor.

Several offices and two apartments were destroyed by the flames. All the occupants escaped safely.

The roofs of two of the buildings collapsed and smoke and debris shot out.

The dense smoke damaged several shops in nearby buildings.

Mild Spell Hits Most Of Country

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An early January spell of mild and dry weather continued across the major part of the nation today.

There were a few chilly spots, including northern Florida, but generally temperatures were in the 30-40 degree range in most of the country. Higher readings were reported in southern Florida.

Cold air, with snow flurries, covered areas in northern Maine and in parts of the Lake Superior district. Temperatures in the teens were reported in mountain areas in the West. The mercury dropped to 29 in Cross City, Fla., but it was 66 in Miami.

Health

Nearly everybody gets dandruff. Dandruff comes in two forms. Brunettes have the greasy kind. Usually, from dead skin cells. Resulting from excess skin oil. Blondes tend toward a dry type. Of scalp dandruff that sheds. Constant care of scalp and hair. With frequent vigorous shampoo. Thorough rinsing and drying. Regular brushing and combing. Usually will control dandruff.

In explaining his order, Lingo said: "That Negro is not going to be shown any partiality. He's going to be treated like any other student."

Lingo said his troopers were here to preserve the peace and prevent any of the 10,000 students from getting hurt.

MAN GUILTY OF CARRYING GUN

NEW YORK (AP)—Howard D. Wagner, 32, of Lansdowne, Pa., has been acquitted of a charge of assault with intent to murder. It stemmed from the shooting in the home of his estranged wife's father at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point.

A federal jury, however, convicted him Friday of carrying a concealed weapon. Maximum sentence is five years and a $1,000 fine.

An FBI agent testified during the four-day trial that Wagner insisted his pistol went off accidentally during a scuffle late August with his wife's father, a former U.S. Military Academy rifle coach, now retired.

The shots were fired in the West Point home of Sgt. Oscar Gallman of Lebanon, Tenn.

He, Wagner and Wagner's wife, Donna, 19, were struck by bullets in the fracas. None was seriously hurt.

Testimony indicated Wagner had gone to Gallman's home seeking a reconciliation with his wife and hoping to see their son, born last July 3.

The jury of 11 men and one woman deliberated five hours. Wagner was continued in $3,500 bail and held in jail in lieu of it.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON
MORE ABOUT THE KERR CLAN

John (2) Kerr, the son of George (1) and Isabella Kerr, married Martha Darby and they were the parents of seven sons and two daughters. The former are mentioned, in detail, in their father's will, but the two daughters appear to have been "left out in the cold." Possibly, however, the girls received their share of John (2) Kerr's estate as "marriage portions."

According to a fairly reliable family tradition the two daughters of John (2) and Martha (Darby) Kerr were born between the years 1744 and 1750. One of the two, Elizabeth (3) Kerr, married a William Scott. The name of the other daughter is not known.

HAD 8 CHILDREN

George (3) Kerr, the eldest son of John (2) and Martha (Darby) Kerr, married Martha Waugh, the daughter of John and Susan (Moffatt) Waugh. They were the parents of eight children — as follows:—

1. Jean (4) Kerr — the twin of Martha (4) Kerr — born October 10, 1766 — Died December 6, 1813 — became the second wife of Abram Scott, the son of Major Hugh and Janet (Agnew) Scott. Both Jean (4) Kerr and her husband are buried in Lower Marsh Creek Churchyard. The inscriptions follow:—

5. "In memory of — Abram Scott — Died February 28th, 1834 — Aged 77 years."

Note: Adams Centinel, Monday, March 3, 1834 — "Died, on Friday, February 28th, 1834, Mr. Abraham (or Abram) Scott, Senior, of Hamiltonbann Township, this County."

6. "In memory of — Jane Scott — Died December 6, 1813 — Aged 47 years."

Note: — Jane (or Jean) Kerr, the daughter of George (3) and Mary (Waugh) Kerr, and the second wife of Abram (or Abram) Scott.

Adams Centinel, Monday, December 15, 1813 — "Departed this life, on December 6th, 1813, in the 47th year of her age, Mrs. Jane Scott, the consort of Captain Abraham Scott, of Liberty Township, this County."

TWIN SISTER

2. Martha (4) Kerr (twin sister of Jean (or Jane) Kerr, the second wife of Abram Scott) — born October 10, 1766 — Died March 1830 — married Captain Samuel McCullough Jr., the son of Samuel (Senior) and Margaret McCullough.

3. Adams Centinel, Wednesday, January 31, 1827 — "Died, Saturday evening, January 27th, 1827, Mr. Samuel McCullough, junior, of Cumberland Township, this County."

4. Adams Centinel, Wednesday, March 31, 1830 — "Died, Friday morning, March 26, 1830, Mrs. Martha McCullough, relict of Mr. Samuel McCullough, of Hamiltonbann Township, this County, in the 64th year of her age."

Note: — Undoubtedly both Samuel McCullough Jr., and his wife, Martha (4) Kerr, are buried in the Lower Marsh Creek Churchyard and just as surely their graves were at one time designated by markers. However, these stones have disappeared and no trace of them can be found.

HAD 4 CHILDREN

Martha (4) Kerr and her husband, Captain Samuel McCullough Jr., were the parents of at least four children. Three of these married offspring of Samuel (Senior) and Elizabeth (Cunningham) Cobean. Eliza (5) McCullough was married, on June 24, 1833, to Samuel Cobean, Junior; James (5) McCullough married, February 16, 1837, one Jane Cobean; and John (5) McCullough married, Elizabeth (Betty) Cobean.

John McCullough and his wife, Elizabeth Cobean, are buried in the McCullough family plot in Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian graveyard. The inscription follows:—

7. "In memory of — Elizabeth Cobean — wife of — John McCullough — Born February 11, 1815 — Died August 1, 1874 — Aged 59 years."

8. "In memory of — John McCullough — Born September 19th 1795 — Died October 6, 1875 — Aged 79 years."

Mary (5) McCullough, the second daughter of Samuel (Junior) and Martha (4) Kerr McCullough, was born in 1794 and died May 19, 1858. She married Daniel McAllister, the youngest son of James and Catharine (Hughes) McAllister.

Brood Sow Needs Limited Diet For Larger Litters, Lower Production Costs

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

Livestock farmers can produce more pigs with less feed. More brood sows are overfed during the pregnancy period than underfed. There are two reasons for this: An animal in good condition has more eye appeal to most people, and it is easier to self-feed a brood sow than to limit her feed by hand feeding.

Research has shown that these reasons aren't enough to justify the overfeeding of brood sows. It has been proven that it costs 50 to 75 per cent more to self-feed brood sows, and overfed sows have more trouble at farrowing and will generally end up with smaller litters.

There is no question that brood sows should be limited to 4 to 5 lb of feed per day if you are interested in economical and efficient pig production. Just remember, that the ration must contain about 15 per cent protein. This protein plus vitamins and minerals can be supplied by using a commercial sow and pig supplement mixed with grains such as corn, barley, or oats.

Farmers are urged not to waste feed and reduce their pig production by overfeeding those pregnant sows.

EGG QUALITY

Most eggs are top quality when laid, and from then on it is up to the poultryman to preserve the quality until marketed. Frequent gathering in containers that permit animal heat to escape rapidly from the eggs is important.

Here are some further suggestions: Wash eggs immediately after gathering and move the containers to a cool, damp egg room promptly. Set the receptacles far enough apart to allow air circulation around them.

Rapid air movement by fans reduces the cooling time required by one half when eggs are in baskets.

Precool the egg cases and packing material in the cool, damp egg room before using them. Pack eggs with small end down after all animal heat has been removed.

WINTER DRIVING RISKS

Two major hazards of winter driving are commonly referred to as inadequate traction and reduced visibility. Research has shown there are really five important points to consider.

Remember these few pointers to help reduce accidents on hazardous roads.

The inability to pull away from a standstill on an icy road, to go up slippery hills, or to negotiate deep snow can present a hazard. Trouble may vary from aggravating delays to major traffic tie-ups and accidents. To improve traction, make sure tires have "good treads." Snow treads are better. In tough going, chains provide still more. Go easy on the accelerator. Spinning wheels can reduce starting traction as much as 30 per cent.

The long stopping distances required on slippery roads may become another hazard. Braking distances are three to twelve times longer on ice and snow than on dry roads. Practice realistic driving precautions. Reduce speed and allow more distance between cars.

Temperature is another factor. As the temperature rises, ice becomes much more slippery because of the film of moisture on the surface. Getting the feel of the road periodically will help eliminate skids.

ICY CONDITIONS

Slipperiness of road surfaces is increased by the polishing effect of tires spinning and sliding on ice and snow, particularly at intersections, on curves, and on hills.

Polished ice and snow lengthens braking distances, slows traffic and presents unusually severe hazards at intersections. Slow down before reaching an intersection and before going around a curve or down a hill.

Winter storms reduce the ability to see and be seen, so be sure to have a clean windshield inside and outside.

Wipers should be in A-1 condition—blades should clean the windshield without streaking. The arm pressure should be firm enough to give a good sweeping action.

After a storm, be sure to clear the windshield and all the windows. Wipe off headlights, turn signals and all rear lights so they will be visible to other cars.

KILLER MAY GO TO FUNERAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 15-year-old boy, who was arraigned Thursday in Juvenile Court on charges of killing his father, broke down when told he could attend his father's funeral. He said he didn't know if he wanted to go.

The boy, Charles Link, is charged with the shotgun slaying of his father, William, during a quarrel Monday at their home. Leader Solovay, Juvenile Aid detective, testified before Judge J. Sydney Hoffman that constant quarreling between the boy's parents prompted the killing.

Charles was ordered by the court to be returned to the Youth Study Center for psychiatric examination.

Judge Hoffman ordered Solovay to continue his investigation.

KILLED BY CAR
PITTSBURGH (AP)—A car killed Mrs. Viola Christian, 60, of Pittsburgh as she stepped into the street near her home Thursday, police reported.

MAY REDESIGN PLANE TANKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A major redesign of fuel tanks to help prevent lightning induced explosions in commercial airplanes has been recommended by the Civil Aeronautics Board. The proposal grew out of the CAB's continuing investigation of the Dec. 7 airliner explosion near Elkton, Md. All 81 persons aboard the Boeing 707 jet of Pan American World Airways were killed. There has been speculation that lightning may have set off the in-flight blast.

The CAB, among other proposals submitted to the Federal Aviation Agency, said consideration also should be given to requiring that only one jet fuel—to be designated Jet-A—be used in commercial planes. FAA makes the air safety rules.

The board said surge fuel tanks near the wing tips and just outboard of reserve tanks may be vulnerable to lightning strikes and manufacturers might refrain from using the wing's skin as part of the surge-tank wall.

The FAA already is studying the characteristics of two basic jet fuels to determine whether safety margins might be increased.

One Belle Firm Is Nearly Broke

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A company which former financier Earl Belle once headed has only $1,467 left to distribute to creditors, says federal bankruptcy referee Stephen P. Laffey.

Laffey said Thursday this was the only assets remaining in the Cornucopia Gold Mines, Inc. which Belle once served as president.

Belle, who recently returned from Brazil where he stayed as a fugitive for five years, is free on bail pending trial in U. S. District Court.

He faces trial on charges of fraud in financial dealings.

Home Hooked To Street Lights

MEMPHIS (AP) — The city utilities division got a call from a customer who said that come sundown each day, his lights in the house would come on automatically and the radio would start playing.

Just the reverse in the morning; nothing electrical would work all day long, he said.

A division clerk said the customer's service wire had been tapped to a street light circuit which is fed electricity only during the hours of darkness.

employees' credit union, said Thursday the workers are "willing to go in hock for about $1 million" to buy the line. He said some of the employees are even willing to mortgage their homes," to raise money for the purchase.

LUNG CANCER CASE RETRIAL IS REFUSED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An attempt to gain a partial new trial in the Otto E. Pritchard lung cancer-cigarette case has been turned down in U. S. District Court.

Judge John L. Miller rejected Thursday a petition from attorneys of the deceased suburban Brookline man. Pritchard had sued the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., saying that he contracted lung cancer by smoking its cigarettes.

A federal jury had ruled his cancer was caused by cigarette smoking. But it refused to award damages on grounds that Pritchard had assumed the risk by smoking.

In denying the petition, Judge Miller said he could not amend the judgement because counsel had failed to make a motion for a directed verdict during the trial.

Pritchard's attorneys had pneumonia. Medical authorities said his death was not related to his lung cancer. He was 64. Pritchard's attorneys had sought a new trial to determine if any damages could be obtained from Liggett & Myers.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Robert H. Wylie, 64, retired brigadier general and director of the Port of San Francisco from 1947 to 1954, died Thursday, apparently from injuries suffered in a fall.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — This should be a year of spectaculars, certainly at home, maybe abroad.

At home — the presidential race, with all that means; abroad — the possibility of a summit conference and a grinding Russian-Chinese break.

President Johnson has to achieve in one year what the late President John F. Kennedy had three years to work at: public approval through public exposure; and public approval through public performance.

WORKING AT IT

Johnson, in the time left before the campaign, can't match the amount of public exposure Kennedy got in speeches, trips, banquets, and appearances before news and television cameras as practically every day.

But he's working at it, and working overtime, to create a favorable image of himself as a busy-busy president: at the White House, on trips, walks, tours of his ranch and picture posing.

There'll be lots more of this. Johnson is a man in a hurry.

MUST TRY HARD

Since he is so obviously seeking to stay in the public eye, coming as he does from the relative obscurity of the vice presidency, a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev would snatch the world's attention like nothing else.

And, if it turned out half-well, it would snatch the world's approval. That's why such a meeting seems a strong possibility.

Meanwhile, talk without performance at home will be an empty achievement, and probably a self-defeating one. Johnson will have to try, and try harder than Kennedy ever did, to get some major legislation through Congress.

NOT AS MILD

He's not as mild as Kennedy and for that reason is apt to get into some harrowing disputes with congressional leaders, an embroilment Kennedy always avoided.

Kennedy's technique, however was not very productive in getting Congress to do what he wanted. A different, harsher technique might be more effective.

Yet, Johnson stands a chance of hurting himself if he gets too rough. He doesn't have Kennedy's ease or grace. A fight creates enemies and gives the impression of a man in trouble.

10 PLACID YEARS

Kennedy made an effort to appear both calm and in full control, even when Congress frustrated and ignored him. But the Kennedy technique of no fights with Congress was simply a repetition of President Eisenhower's technique.

The result was 10 years of placidity in relations between the White House and Congress. There hasn't been a good brawl since the days of President Truman.

But all this is only half the picture of 1964.

DOUBLE GOP CHORE

The Republicans' presidential hopefuls will have a double chore, too: knocking one another out of the race while trying to scuttle Johnson.

Kennedy, after three years of building public confidence in his leadership, could have relaxed a bit under attack until the Republicans had picked their candidate and the race was under way.

Johnson can enjoy no such

JURY CHARGES KIDNAP TRIO

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal grand jury—after hearing testimony which reportedly included that of Frank Sinatra Jr.—dealt swiftly and impartially with three men accused of kidnapping him.

All three were charged with six counts of kidnapping, conspiracy, placing ransom calls, and possession of ransom money.

No quarter was shown John William Irwin, 42, first of the trio arrested, who was reported to have helped the FBI after having his own brother turn him in.

In fact, it was disclosed, the FBI didn't need Irwin's help to crack the case.

U. S. Atty. Francis Whelan, who announced the indictments, said that the matter was all but settled when Irwin was arrested Dec. 13 near San Diego.

The grand jury concluded its hearing on the case Thursday with the presentation of a true bill against the three men—Irwin, Barry Worthington Keenan and Clyde Joseph Amsler, each 23. The three defendants will be arraigned Monday.

Urges Scranton To Act On Bills

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Democratic Leader Anthony J. Petrosky has called on Gov. Scranton to take immediate action on the legislative reapportionment bills.

"Failure to take action would indicate that there was malice of forethought in this diabolical scheme to deliberately obstruct the rights of the electorate to judicial hearing," the minority spokesman said Thursday.

The legislature completed action on the bills Dec. 14, giving Scranton 30 days in which to sign them into law.

A federal court suit challenging the constitutionality of the Republican-sponsored bills has been held in abeyance pending final approval by the governor. Scranton aides have said the delay is to give the administration time to study the bills for accuracy.

Petrosky noted that circulation of nominating petitions for office to the General Assembly begins Jan. 28. He contended "there must be sufficient time before this date for the courts to hear the witnesses on this question."

MORE JOBLESS CLAIMS
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bureau of Employment Security reports both new and continued unemployment compensation claims increased during the week ended Dec. 27.

In a report issued Thursday, the bureau said new claims totaled 57,516 during the week, 15,735 more than for the previous week. Continued claims totaled 170,643, an increase of 6,879.

luxury. Besides, it's probably not in his nature to grin and bear it. He has a struggle every inch of the way to election day.

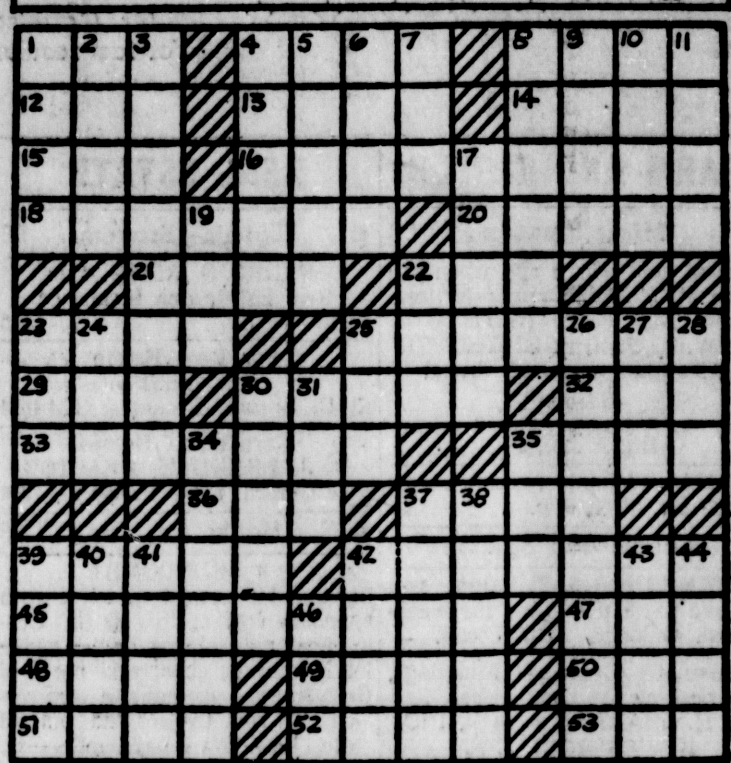

Since he's not a man who takes criticism lightly, what's ahead for him is enough to heat up any politician. He not only has to make a record for himself, but he has to make a record as a Democrat leader, too.

The fact that Kennedy was so obviously well-liked might have taken some of the spirit, and much of the fight, out of his Republican opponents. But the brand-new Johnson is fresh meat for them.

This could well be the roughest and most unpleasant presidential race since Truman beat New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

But Johnson has one enormous advantage over the Republican As president he can stay in focus every day.

Letter To The Editor

Biglerville, Pa.
The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:
Having just passed through the season of the year when the exchange of friendly greetings and good wishes is so common among friends, relatives and business associates we may in the process forget some around us who are equally worthy of recognition.

One of this group is John W. Simmers, part-time resident of Biglerville, who though 83 years "young" has a lot of vitality and interests. He is too busy spreading rays of sunshine to allow loneliness and age rob him of a rich and full life.

On summer mornings one can usually find him on his favorite rocker on the front porch reading the Bible. By evening he has shifted his position to the porch swing where he is surrounded by the neighborhood children who love his stories of the past. These daily periods of reflection are interspersed with brief chats with neighbors and with work in his garage shop at the home of his son-in-law, Charles G. Boyer, E. York St.

Here in the workshop, "Paw" as he is known by his friends, fashions scraps of wood into children's furniture, picture frames and all sorts of whatnots. When he runs out of ideas he has enough repair work brought in by the neighborhood women to keep him busy.

The fees he charges for his work are as extraordinary as his variety of interests. Measured by today's hourly rates they seem all the more unusual. Repairing a doll house might cost 10 cents, while more involved jobs such as fixing a kitchen chair or table might cost 25 cents or two for 40 cents, cash on delivery. He enjoys working with wood but painting he despises and will have nothing to do with it.

Mr. Simmers' church interests are as unique as his work life. One seldom sees him at worship without a flower in the lapel of his coat. If they are no longer blooming he will nurse a garden remnant along to serve his needs. Church bulletins are not merely an order of worship for him. Each week's cover picture usually affords an exciting scene to cut out and carefully fit into a picture frame he designs and makes. Many of these now adorn the kitchen and bedroom walls of neighbors and college students away from home.

While he enjoys his visits with his two other children in Florida and Virginia (where he has been spending part of the last several years since his wife died) he has a special interest in Adams County. This is due largely to the fact

Electrical Mixup In Weather Beacon

KANSAS CITY (AP)—If you believed the weather beacon atop an office building Thursday night, the forecast was for clear, stormy, snowy, clear, stormy, snowy.

The beacon, which indicates those conditions with green, red and white lights—in that order—was flashing them in sequence.

It was an electrical mixup—but not as bad as the one a few years ago when on a hot summer night the light indicated snow.

Freedom Group Must Pay Taxes

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—The Chester County Commissioners, sitting as the board of assessment and tax revision Thursday, upheld an appeal by the Schuylkill Township School District to remove the tax exempt status of the Freedom Foundation at nearby Valley Forge.

The foundation, whose 118 acres and buildings are located in the township, will pay an estimated $14,000 in township school taxes and $1,000 in county taxes on a $482,000 assessment, Rogers said.

that his father fought in the Confederate Army that engaged the Union Army in the Pennsylvania-Virginia area. During the Centennial celebration this past summer, Mr. Simmers attended a meeting of descendants of veterans and is quite proud of a picture taken of the group.

In these days when we are so often tempted to lose faith in humanity, it is refreshing and uplifting to live in communities where there are venerable men like "Paw" who do much to restore one's faith in the virtues of man and make life more interesting and meaningful. Mr. Simmers keeps "his hand to the plow and his face to the future" and knows what Robert Browning meant when he wrote, "Grow old along with me, the best of life is yet to be."

Many good pound cake recipes call for vanilla and mace as flavorings; but you can also add a little grated orange rind for a very pleasing effect.

FISHER TO GET QUICK DIVORCE

PUERTO VALLARTA, Mexico (AP) — The Mexican judge who granted Sybil Burton her divorce says singer Eddie Fisher is expected to start divorcing Elizabeth Taylor today or Monday, at the latest.

Miss Taylor and Sybil's ex-husband, actor Richard Burton, remained secluded at their villa overlooking Puerto Vallarta and could not be reached for comment. Lawyers here for conferences with the pair declined to comment on Judge Arcadio Estrada Quinones' prediction.

If Estrada's prediction proves accurate, Burton, 40, and the 31-year-old actress could marry by the middle of the month.

Fisher is not expected to come here for the divorce proceedings. Mrs. Burton didn't when she got hers.

Burton and Miss Taylor have been living here since last October, when the Welsh actor arrived to make the film "Night of the Iguana."

"Hollywood And The Stars"

Host Joseph Cotton, A Perpetual Drag

Joseph Cotton, who's made plenty of movie history himself with major roles, narrates the weekly "Hollywood and the Stars" (NBC, Mondays, 9:30 P.M.). He still recalls his first film (Orson Welles' "Citizen Kane") fondly. "We were all babes in the woods, all pictures should be made that way."

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

"Yeah, but have you ever seen a real live movie in person?" The quizzer wasn't somebody who'd passed his childhood in the no-home-screen days of 15 years ago.

This was a boy, overheard on a Fifth Ave. bus, who right now is still looking forward to his 12th birthday. The petite snow-suited girl he was trying to wow in their private status struggle diffidently tossed in the names of two kiddie-show emcees.

Didn't count. "Real movies, I said." Then he let loose the block buster. It seems he had once seen Joseph Cotton "as close as you are." Out of the mouths of babes or something.

THEME A WEEK

Anyhow, who the movie-struck young one arrived at so artlessly, Executive-Producer David Wolper arrived at cannily when he nabbed the first-magnitude Cotton as host-narrator for his weekly NBC production, "Hollywood and the Stars" (Mondays, 9:30-10 p.m.). Wolper, who can put his hands on any amount of rare and off-guard home films of stars as well as newsreels and film clips going all the way back to "The Great Train Robbery," likes to work a theme a week (or at the most, two weeks). Topics already covered includes, monsters, gangsters, comics, dreamboats, dream girls, silents, talkies and westerns.

"You'd think," said Joseph Cotton when I finally got to talk to him, "that since our program is drawn from film sources, the entire series would all be in the can but it isn't. When Patricia (his actress-wife Patricia Medina) and I went off to England for a little holiday with her folks I thought we were safely several weeks ahead with the series."

SOMETHING SLIPPED

"But something had slipped up . . . and they sent a crew after me to catch up on commentary in London. Now, even before I can get back to Hollywood they need something. Just voice this time, so we're doing it right here in New York."

Cotton, who if he wanted to boast, could vote that he came into movies with a star part, has maintained the status ever since, chose instead to reflect on "The Love Goddesses," one of the topics the series has already tackled.

REALITY AND MYTH

"You know it has been absolutely tragic for some of those girls. It's been difficult — to impossible — for them to separate their personal lives from the glamorous reputations they've been given."

Some of the men, when you think of it, have managed to get pretty tangled between reality and myth, but not the six-foot two Virginia-born Cotton. His private life, characterized by dignity, has occasioned no unfavorable publicity. Further, the ash-blond actor has res such a consistent draw nobody's ever felt the need to gimmick up trash to get him additional attention.

Cotton says he always wanted to be an actor, got a head start when he talked his father into letting go to a drama school in Washington for a year instead of to college. He had to take two "eating jobs" (one as a Brooklyn paint salesman, the other with a potato salad firm he founded himself) before he got his foot in his first stage door.

TURNING POINT

He considers that teaming up with Orson Welles marked the turning point of his career. He was a member of the original Mercury Theater in which then boy-genius Welles made history on the stage with a modern-dress "Julius Caesar," later in its radio presentation made an even more notable dent in the nation's equilibrium by accidentally triggering the "Marian invasion scare."

MANY ROLES

Then Cotton went along into Welles' first venture in movies, "Citizen Kane." Cotton said the title over softly. "Citizen Kane" We were all babes in the woods . . . and you know, I'm terribly sorry all movies can't be made that way."

The wonderful land of Oz is beckoning twice in coming weeks, with CBS scheduling (for the sixth time) a showing of MGM's classic in which the young Judy Garland portrayed Dorothy; Ray Bolger the Straw Man; Jack Haley, the Tin Man; Bert Lahr, the Cowardly Lion; Billie Burke, the Good Witch; Margaret Hamilton, the Bad Witch, and the late Frank Morgan "The Wizard of Oz."

As extra added attraction, CBS is bringing in Danny Kaye as host. The two-hour presentation is set for January 26, 6-8 p.m.

On Sunday, February 9, (5 p.m.) NBC will present an original animated production titled "Return to Oz."

Both the CBS presentation of the "Wizard" and the NBC animation are being telecast in color.

STARTED IN CANADA

Like Lorne Greene of "Bonanza" Monty Hall, emcee of NBC's newest daytime program ("Let's Make a Deal"), got his start with the CBC in Canada.

And—like Greene—her currently makes his home in Beverly Hills.

Hall first became known to U.S. audiences when he substituted for Warren Hull in "Strike It Rich."

Quizzing is nothing new to Hall who served both as emcee and producer of Canada's longest running radio quiz, "Who Am I?"

In addition to hosting "Let's Make a Deal," Hall is also co-producer.

Hollywood

Before our interview, I scanned local schedules for about two dozen cities and discovered that in addition to Joseph Cotten narrating "Hollywood and the Stars" your chances were good of seeing Cotten as a hero, a villain, a romantic lead, a nice-guy-who-didn't-get-the-girl (and what a dimwit she must have been), to Cotten in a western (adult-style). The titles are a movie history of their own: "Magnificent Ambersons," Portrait of Jennie" (with Jennifer Jones), "Lydia" (with Merle Oberon), "Gaslight" (with Ingrid Bergman), "Shadow of a Doubt," "Duel in the Sun" and the spooky "Third Man," again with good friend Orson Welles.

He also gets back on Broadway whenever he can. Several seasons ago he and Arlene Francis were well received in "Once More With Feeling" and last season he and his wife appeared together in the critical success "Calculated Risk." Which medium does he prefer? Likes them all. "Frankly some of my movies were disappointing to me, but I've never been too disturbed." He nodded with a half smile toward the future. "I just move on to something new. But never mind my pictures, keep your eye on our series, 'Hollywood and the Stars' you'll see many facets of movie history."

AT FASHION SHOW

Then I changed the subject, said I thought it was darned nice of him to have appeared the day before at a fashion show conducted by a New York department store before an audience of 1,200. He was even nicer than I realized, as it turned out, though he said, with absolute sincerity, "You know it's sort of a nice thing they put on, nice clothes, and a very lonely looking audience. The lighting was such that I could see them too. Thank goodness I got there, just made it by minutes."

"Yes, I understand it had been advertised for a week but nobody remembered to tell me. First thing I knew about it was when I boarded the plane in London yesterday and picked up the New York newspaper. There WAS a car waiting for me when I landed, but no time to change clothes even." And there you have it. With movie folks, as with other folks, the bigger they are, the bigger are.

NEW YORK (AP) — What's in store for us in 1964?

A deep peer into our clouded crystal ball shows we can look forward to the mixture as before—but with some surprises.

On the international front, it seems safe to predict, Soviet Premier Khrushchev will find at least 700 million reasons to grasp the Western world in an ever more cordial embrace—and all the reasons are Chinese.

In Washington, as a result of stringent belt-tightening by the Democrats in their new federal economy program, the government will announce it has used 1,364,283,195 fewer paper clips than during any year of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

secretly taking home government-bought pencils and letting their children use them to do their home work.

Both political parties will call vigorously for a reduction in taxes—and 90 million taxpayers will give a big fat yawn. They know that if one level of government takes less from their pocketbooks, another level of government will take more.

In an unexpected goodwill gesture, the taxicab drivers of Paris will raise a fund to build a monument to the American tourist. As a matter of national pride, however, the statue turned out by the sculptor will closely resemble President Charles de Gaulle.

HANDLING GRAIN

A more inexpensive way of handling the nation's grain surplus will be found. It will be stored in government-built bomb shelters. In case of an emergency, the citizen will merely shovel out the grain, or crawl in and pull it over his head.

In medicine the big news will be the discovery of two more sure cures for the common cold. After trying them both, the average man will find the only sure thing about them is that they sure don't work.

As a result of continued automation, more people will be working less — and enjoying it less, too. But business will be generally on the upgrade, and the competition for the big

FORREST TUCKER

Forrest Tucker is a man of sense as well as sense of humor. He bundled up against the cold a couple of weeks ago so dashingly he looked like the classic portrait of a European film director. Fur-collared trench coat, navy beret, cigarette holder. Not until you got close, did you realize who it was. Then the big grin gave him away. He had trekked along with ABC's "Wide World of Sports" crew to cover the world barrel jumping competition at Grossingers, and while they were rushing around, he stood by the outdoor rink in below freezing temperatures most of the day.

BUSY CLARK

Dick Clark has joined list of long distance commuters with the premiering of the Monday-Friday game show on ABC, "The Object Is," from Hollywood.

Clark is still doing his Saturday "American Bandstand" from Philadelphia, but with a time change. The show has moved up an hour and will be seen from now on from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

buck will go on unchecked. All in all, 1964 promises to be a zany, wonderful year, and life will remain what it has always been—the only thing worth living. Be sure to do your share of it.

Jersey Shore Steel
Plans Are Uncertain

JERSEY SHORE, Pa. (AP)—The Jersey Shore Steel Co. terms it premature at this time to say definitely whether it will rebuild its plant destroyed by fire.

The company was quoted earlier this week as saying it would rebuild the $1 million plant which burned Sunday. It is the major industry in the community, employing 225 persons.

The company said Thursday it had held a mass meeting of employees and leaders of Local 5093, United Steelworkers of America. A spokesman said a major obstacle was cleared by a union agreement to continue the existing contract.

However, the company said, a final decision on whether to rebuild here or move elsewhere would not be announced for another week or 10 days.

SELINGROVE, Pa. (AP)—A sailor was killed instantly Friday when his passenger car and a commercial vehicle met head-on in the center of a three-lane highway.

The victim was identified from papers he carried as Holger T. Nelson, 18, of Clearwater Beach, Fla.

The accident occurred about three miles south of Selinsgrove on U. S. 11-15 about 6 a. m.

OPENING NIGHT

Spring will be a scant month old when the New York World's Fair opens for business . . . and NBC is scheduling a special 90 minute colorcast April 22 (7:30 p.m.) to mark the event — both live and on film and tape.

Three mobile units with 12 cameras are being assigned to the opening night live coverage.

The filmed portions the network says will "start several weeks before the opening and continue into the afternoon of the 22nd."

TV VETERAN

Russell Johnson, new narrator for "The Great Adventure" on CBS replacing Van Heflin (who withdrew because of other commitments) is a veteran TV guest having appeared on "Rawhide," "Twilight Zone," "77 Sunset Strip" and numerous other series. He has also just completed the movie, "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Robert Vaughn has reason to find truth sweeter than fiction. In NBC's "The Lieutenant" he plays a Marine captain . . . whereas in real life he was recently upped to major by the Army Reserve.

Red Barber, this year is starting his 34th year as a sportscaster. He has covered 13 World Series, four All-Star baseball games, five Army-Navy football games and uncounted Rose, Orange and Sugar Bowl events.
